Pediatric hospital medicine (PHM) is in the midst of an exciting period of growth. In 2016, the American Board of Medical Specialties approved the petition for PHM to become the newest pediatric subspecialty, taking PHM on a divergent path from the Focused Practice in Hospital Medicine designation established for adult hospitalists.

~~The Future of Pediatric Hospital Medicine: Challenges and -~~

There has been marked recent growth in the employment and utilization of both pediatric and adult hospitalists. Recent data demonstrate that approximately 25% of current pediatric hospitalist programs are less than 2 years old.1 Some have posited that this growth is due to increasing pressure from the public and payors to deliver cost-effective and high-quality care.2 However, little is ...
