There are various approaches used by educators when it comes to teaching music. Some of the best ways of teaching children music are to build upon a child's innate curiosity and teach children in a way that they learn best, similar to how a child learns their native language. Each teaching method has a system, an underlying philosophy with ...

The Kodaly Method is a way of developing musical skills and teaching musical concepts beginning in very young children. This method uses folk songs, Curwen hand signs, pictures, movable-do, rhythm symbols, and syllables. It was first introduced in Hungary but is now used in many countries, either alone or in combination with other methods.
